Through the lens: 50 Years of professional Photography

Tuesday September 1, 2026 – 8:00 pm (Eastern Time)

Topic

Ron will share 5 decades of images and experiences from a career spanning corporate, editorial, and event photography, including the Olympic Games, NFL events, healthcare photography inside operating rooms, architectural assignments, and more than three decades working with Six Flags. The program also features work from tours with the Moscow Ballet, national conferences, and government assignments, including photographing the President of Turkey and the First Lady during their visit to the United Nations in New York.

You will see how digital photography has transformed Ron's workflow in recent years and learn how professional images are created for marketing and PR firms, newspapers, magazines, press releases, ribbon cuttings, and corporate storytelling. Along the way, Ron will explain how these assignments were obtained and he'll share real world lessons learned on location.

Bio

Ron, a self-taught photographer has covered the NBA, NFL and Major League Baseball. He also photographed two Summer Olympic Games. His photos have appeared in publications such as: USA Today, Black Enterprise Magazine, Time Magazine, Newsweek, TV Guide, ESPN and others. He has cover corporate assignments for Six Flags, Eastman Kodak, Continental Airlines, CVS, Pepsico, Verizon, MetLife, Capital One and many others. His photography has allowed him to travel the world. He was assigned by Kodak to photograph two Summer Olympic Games, (Athens 2004 and Beijing 2008). His Olympic work was featured in Studio Photography, and a 7-page spread in the July 2009 issue of RangeFinder Magazine.
